8. watch sports competitions?
9. see works by European artists?
10. admire a religious sculpture?
11. enjoy concerts in a beautiful building?
12. learn how people lived in the past?

A. Cardiff Arms Park

The world famous Cardiff Arms Park is home to rugby and football. International rugby and soccer are regularly played here and many fans come to watch their favourite teams play. It also hosts pop and rock concerts and other major sporting events.

B. Coal Exchange

Built in 1884 when Cardiff was becoming the world's busiest coal port, the Coal Exchange is at the heart of Europe's most exciting waterfront development. This inspiring building with its beautiful carvings is regularly the venue for concerts, exhibitions and banquets.

C. Welsh Folk Museum

One of Europe's foremost open-air museums presents the life and culture of Wales in 100 acres of parkland. Sights include an Elizabethan Mansion House, re-erected farmhouse, cottages, and houses showing the evolution of building styles and living conditions in Wales.

D. Cardiff City Hall

This impressive Portland stone palace is located in a remarkable parkland and wide avenues, only a short walk from the city centre. This palace is as impressive outside as inside. It has the Marble Hall with the Heroes of Wales statues and the Assembly Room with great chandeliers.

E. Llandaff Cathedral

Built on a site first occupied by a religious community in the 6th century, Llandaff Cathedral has demonstrated a quiet ability to survive. Cromwell's soldiers turned it into an alehouse; it suffered severe bomb damage in the 1940's. Now restored, it contains Epstein's awesome sculpture called Christ in Majesty.

F. National Museum of Wales

Recent developments have placed the National Museum of Wales at the front of European museums: new galleries display a famous collection of French Impressionist paintings.

My Weekdays

My weekdays are fast and exciting. My weekdays are fast and domestic! I have two sons, Dylan, 7, and Dakota, 5. Every morning I get up one hour before them, at 6.00, and go to the gym. I come home and make breakfast. Then I take them to school. On Mondays I always go shopping.

I buy all the food for the week. I often cook dinner in the evenings, but not every day because I do not like cooking. Fortunately, my husband, Don, loves cooking. On Tuesdays and Thursdays I visit my father. He lives on the next block. Every afternoon I pick up the kids from school. In the evenings Don and I usually relax, but sometimes we visit friends. We never go out on Friday evenings because I start work so early on Saturdays.
